INTERVIEW WITH TRAVELERS

INTERVIEW WITH ROCHELLE PILLAY - GLOBAL SECRETARY GENERAL OF THE INFORMAL ECONOMY DEVELOPMENT FORUM

We had the pleasure of speaking with Rochelle Pillay, the Global Secretary General of the Informal Economy Development Forum, about her experience with Kgokare Tours as a service provider for the Informal Economy Global Summit (IEGS). Here's what she had to say:

Q: Can you tell us about your experience working with Kgokare Tours during the Informal Economy Global Summit?

A: "Working with Kgokare Tours was truly exceptional. They provided transport services for our summit, and I must say, their professionalism and efficiency were remarkable. They handled last-minute changes seamlessly, ensuring all our delegates were transported to and from the venue without any hassle."

Q: What impressed you the most about Kgokare Tours?

A: "What impressed me the most was their ability to adapt to unexpected changes with grace. During a major event like ours, flexibility and reliability are crucial, and Kgokare Tours exceeded our expectations in both regards."

Q: How did Kgokare Tours contribute to the success of the summit?

A: "Their contribution was significant. By providing reliable and comfortable transport services, Kgokare Tours contributed to the smooth operation of our summit. Delegates were able to focus on the discussions and networking opportunities, knowing that transport logistics were well taken care of."

Q: Would you recommend Kgokare Tours to others based on your experience?

A: "Absolutely, without hesitation. I would highly recommend Kgokare Tours to anyone looking for professional transport services in South Africa. Their dedication to customer satisfaction and their ability to handle complex logistics make them a valuable partner for any event."
